(U) Klamath – Riot Breaks Out at Prison Firefighting Camp

(U) About forty inmates rioted at a California prison camp in Klamath, injuring one staff member and three inmates, according to a Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation news release. Correctional staff at Alder Creek Conservation Camp issued multiple orders for rioters to stop fighting. When that failed, officers used pepper spray and physical force, according to the release. A correctional staff member was taken to a hospital after he was hit in the head and torso, and is now recovering at home, according to the release. Three inmates who were transferred to an outside hospital were treated for minor injuries and released.

(U) Los Angeles – Gang Member Sentenced for Racially Motivated Fire Bombing

(U) A gang member who firebombed the homes of African Americans to force them out of a Los Angeles housing project was sentenced Monday to 13-years in federal prison. Jose "Lil' Moe" Saucedo, 25, was sentenced for what authorities called "a terribly violent crime," according to a US Department of Justice statement. On Mother's Day 2014, Saucedo and his fellow gang members smashed windows and threw Molotov cocktails into four apartments at Ramona Gardens, a heavily Hispanic housing project in Boyle Heights east of downtown, prosecutors said. Three apartments housed African American families, including sleeping women and children, while the fourth held a Hispanic resident that the gang members targeted by mistake, prosecutors said.

(U) California – US Man Killed In Shootout with Border Agents at San Diego Crossing

(U) San Diego – A US man was shot and killed in a gunfight with US Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officers at the California-Mexico border while trying to enter the country, according to authorities. The 23-year-old man died Monday night at the San Ysidro Port of Entry, the San Diego Police Department said in a press release. Police said he was identified but his name was being withheld until family notification. Authorities said the shooting occurred after the suspect, driving through the port of entry from Mexico into the United States, refused to stop for CBP officers and attempted to drive through the inspection area.

(U) Lebanon – Four Killed In 'Lone Wolf' Gun Attack by Former ISIS Member

(U) Tripoli – A former ISIS member, who was released from jail two years ago, killed four members of the Lebanese security forces. The lone attacker, identified by authorities as Abdul-Rahman Mabsout, opened fire on police in the center of the northern coastal city on the eve of Eid, the feast that marks the end of the Muslim holy month of Ramadan. Gunfire rang out in the busy streets as the attacker battled with security forces and was chased across the city on a motorbike. The Lebanese army said Mabsout killed himself with a suicide belt when cornered by soldiers in an apartment. Two police officers and two soldiers were killed in the shootings.
